PROFILE

Jonathan Oh is a Director at 26 Gambit Chambers LLC, where he heads the firm's client strategy and business development. He is admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore. He practises in restructuring and insolvency, corporate and commercial advisory, and commercial litigation, with a particular focus on special situations, acting on both contentious and non-contentious aspects.

Jonathan has acted for listed companies, financial institutions, global credit and investment firms, venture capital firms, insolvency practitioners and start-ups across a range of sectors, in complex, high-value transactions, in disputes before the Singapore courts, and in arbitrations under the rules of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre. Highlights of his practice include acting in the landmark bond restructuring implemented through the first ever cross-border pre-pack scheme approved by the Singapore International Commercial Court, named "Restructuring Deal of the Year" at the IFLR Asia-Pacific Awards 2025.

Before joining 26 Gambit Chambers, Jonathan practised in the Finance and Financial Regulation department of Bird & Bird ATMD LLP, a Singapore law practice ranked among the world's leading restructuring practices by the Global Restructuring Review in the GRR 2025, and associated with international legal practice Bird & Bird. He moved to Bird & Bird ATMD LLP in August 2025 with the team from BlackOak LLC, a boutique specialising in distress and special situations and one of Singapore's top-ranked law firms in restructuring and insolvency, named "Restructuring and Insolvency Law Firm of the Year" at the Asian Legal Business SE Asia Law Awards 2025. He also previously practised in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution department of Dentons Rodyk & Davidson LLP.
